GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 1903

NO. 19

A GOOD MAN AND CITIZEN GONE

Hon. S. Y. Finley Expired Saturday Night.

GAINESVILLE'S FIRST MAYOR
President of Gainesville Bar Association—A Brave Confederate Soldier.

About half past eight o'clock Saturday night Hon. Samuel Verger Finley died at his home in East Gainesville. Mr. Finley was born in Lebanon, Tenn., in 1835, and was a graduate of the Cumberland University. About 1860 he moved to Florida, and shortly afterwards married Miss Julia D. Wooten, of Chattahoochee, on October 14, 1862. The wife of forty years survives him.

When the seceding states were forced to submit their cause to the arbitrament of arms he entered the Confederate Army, and was a prisoner of war at Pensacola and carried North, where he was afterwards exchanged and again re-entered the Confederate service where he remained until he received an honorable discharge at the end of the civil war.

After the war Mr. Finley came to Gainesville and enjoyed the distinction of being the first mayor of our city ever had. At one time Mr. Finley was associated in the practice of his profession with W. W. Hampton and later dissolved this partnership to enter the practice of law with his father, Gen. J. J. Finley. It is a singular occurrence for a son to die at the advanced age of sixty-eight years and leave surviving him his father.

In the great campaign of 1876, at which time Mr. Finley was living in Jacksonville, he canvassed the State for Drew and in recognition of his brilliant services and ability Governor Drew tendered him the judgeship for the Orlando Circuit, but owing to business interests the offer was declined and later he accepted the offer of prosecuting attorney for the fourth judicial circuit.

A few weeks ago Mr. Finley went to Green Cove Springs in the hope of benefiting his health and returned to Gainesville much improved. On his way home he attended the meeting at Long Bridge in Bradford county and there made a speech that created a deep impression and which was accepted as his announcement for Congress.

The funeral services were conducted from the Episcopal church Sunday afternoon by Archdeacon Gray. In the course of his remarks the minister turned to the members of the bar, who occupied seats just opposite the family, and spoke words of comfort, cheer and encouragement to them. He pointed them to the life of their dead colleague as an example of the upright Christian man. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: W. R. Thomas, J. D. Matheson, James Doig, Dr. J. T. McMillan, John B. Dell, P. M. Colson, T. B. Ellis, W. H. Robertson and Dr. N. D. Phillips.

The bar attended in a body. Each member of the bar carried in his hand a small bouquet and slowly marched up to where the casket rested and placed a flower on his bier.

Mr. Finley was the president of the Gainesville Bar Association. In his professional life were illustrated the highest principles of his profession. He loved and cherished truth, honor and integrity at the bar. As a jurist he was scholarly and profound; as a lawyer he was honest and true; as a citizen he was upright; as a friend he was loyal and considerate, and as a husband and father he was faithful, lovable, tender and kind.

How true is the oft repeated saying: "In the midst of life we are in death." A few short weeks ago the subject of this sketch bid fair to live for many years. Today he sleeps in Evergreen cemetery, beneath the bright June skies, "with face as tranquil and with smile as sweet as that of ever wore. From the agony and anguish of the hour in which he suffered, his immortal soul passed from the scenes of earth and took its flight to that glorious immortality beyond the tomb. With Christian fortitude and childlike faith he closed his eyes "drew the diaphanous of his couch about him and lay down to pleasant dreams."

THE STAR extends its sincere sympathy to the bereaved family who "sit h for the touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still."

Shot himself.

Some time ago the Allen's Journal contained an account of an attempt at suicide by W. R. Brate, of Milledgeville, Ga., by shooting himself in the left side.

The would-be suicide is a son of W. J. Brate, who is suing N. A. Callison, lessee of the Alachua county convicts, for alleged cruelty to another son who was sent to Mr. Callison's camps for vagrancy, and died while there. No cause was assigned for the young man trying to end his existence, and it may be that he was because he was of unsound mind, as his brother who died at Mr. Callison's camp was said to have been.

MURDERER ARRESTED.

Sheriff Buford of South Carolina Comes Here for Prisoner.

Sheriff M. M. Buford of Newberry, S. C., arrived in the city Saturday to get a negro named Elisha Edwards, who murdered an old white man named J. B. Kinard, in South Carolina a year ago. The murderer had been arrested at Waldo this county, several days ago by Deputy Sheriff J. B. Kennard—almost the same name as the murdered man—and had been lodged in the county jail here to await identification by the South Carolina authorities.

The prisoner denied his name and all knowledge of the murder, but recognized Sheriff Buford and was recognized by that gentleman as the guilty party as soon as Buford went to the jail here Saturday evening.

Sheriff Buford informed a STAR reporter that he had traced the murderer in several States since the crime was committed. Had him located in Georgia once, and secured requisition papers from Georgia's governor, but the man wanted disappeared before he could reach him. He has been in Indiana, from which state he came to Florida only recently, and was taken in by Deputy Sheriff Kennard at Waldo, as above stated.

There was one hundred dollars reward offered for his capture and conviction, and Deputy Sheriff Kennard got a part of the reward and escaped the cost of returning him to Carolina and has no chances to take on a conviction.

Sheriff Buford left here with his prisoner via the Atlantic Coast Line Sunday afternoon. He was securely handcuffed, but did not seem to be taking to himself any trouble over the affair.

SENATOR C. M. BROWN.

The Distinguished Gentleman Here Last Week.

Hon. Chas. M. Brown, who represented Marion and Sumter counties in a most able and satisfactory manner as State Senator during the last term of the Legislature, and who is now a member of the Board of Trustees of the East Florida Seminary, arrived in the city last Friday to attend a meeting of that board, which, however, did not meet, on account of some misunderstanding about the time.

Speaking of his announced candidacy for the governorship, the Senator talked pleasantly, and did not leave in the minds of those who heard him any doubt that he would be a candidacy if Gen. Bullock was not.

Senator Brown complimented Gainesville by saying, he had always considered it one of the prettiest towns in Florida.

Those who met the Senator here were well pleased at his appointment to a place on the board of trustees of the East Florida Seminary, and think he will make an ideal trustee.

Dave Hall Catching It.

Dave Hall, the negro crook, who was recently fined $500 by Mayor Thomas for selling blind tiger whiskey in this city, and was later bound over to the circuit court in the sum of $300 by County Judge Mason, and gave bond, was re-arrested Saturday afternoon by Marshal Pinkson on instructions from United States Marshal Chambers of Ocala, and placed in the county jail here.

He was taken to Ocala by Marshal Pinkson yesterday, and when the United States Court gets through with him, he will probably be a wiser if no better negro. Hall has been professing to be a doctor, and thus imposing on some of the more ignorant of his race. He was once a preacher, but the negroes have silenced him, so that he no longer disgraces the pulpit. If he gets what he doubtless deserves, he may have an opportunity of preaching "to the spirits in prison" for years to come.

Nearing Completion.

Two large brick structures are nearing completion in this city, which will be splendid in appearance and better as to service.

They are the city building and fire station, near where the government building is to be erected, and the Gainesville Gas and Electric Light Company's building, near the Seaboard Air Line depot. Both buildings will be imposing structures and will be put to good uses.

A Serious Runaway.

A team owned by Day Edwards of this city, and being used by a commercial traveler in the neighborhood of Fairfield, ran away last Friday, threw out and slightly bruised the driver—J. D. O'Hearn—and the driver, demolished the buggy, and one of the horses was instantly killed by falling and breaking his neck.

The other horse escaped and took to the woods. Mr. Edwards' friends sympathize with him in his loss.

Struck by Lightning.

During a thunderstorm late Thursday afternoon lightning struck the Howard residence in East Gainesville, doing slight damage to the building and setting fire to the clothes of Chris Ahrens, a carpenter who was doing some repair work in one of the rooms. Aside from a slight shock and fright, Mr. Ahrens was unharmed, and it is remarkably strange how the electric current could approach near enough to ignite the garments he wore without producing serious effects.

APPOINTMENT OF E. F. S. FACULTY

The Best and Strongest Faculty the School Ever Had.

SUPT. GUILLIAMS JUBILANT.

Some of the Best Teachers in the Country Have Been Secured.

Supt. Williams is jubilant over the East Florida Seminary's prospects for the future. He fully believes (and many others are of the same opinion) that the Seminary's future is now brighter than it has ever been before. It is certain that it has never before had as strong a faculty as it now has, and as success or failure is made largely by the faculty we may expect pleasing results at the Seminary next term. It will be taught by the following faculty:

Superintendent, Col. J. M. Williams. Capt. W. N. Hughes, commandant. Maj. W. L. Floyd, professor of science. Capt. Geo. M. Lynch, professor of mathematics. Prof. G. M. Spillmann, professor of Greek and Latin. Prof. T. F. McBeath, professor of Greek and Latin. Prof. W. H. Cassels, professor of history and rhetoric. Prof. J. H. Brinson, professor commercial department. Prof. J. R. Summers, professor of typewriting and stenography. Mrs. Truss Denby, instructor in instrumental music. Mrs. W. H. Cassels, instructor in vocal music.

Prof. McBeath is one of the ablest instructors in the country, and is no stranger to our people.

Prof. Cassels is one of Col. Williams' old students, and a graduate of Jaspe Normal College, and Mrs. Cassels is as well fitted for the position she is to fill.

Prof. Summers is from Earles, Ky., and is a graduate of the Southern Normal School at Bowling Green, Ky. He has taught two terms with Supt. Williams in Georgia.

Mrs. Denby's home is in Gainesville, and she is second to none as an instructor in instrumental music. The others are old members of the faculty and the fact that they have been retained speaks volumes of praises for them.

Advertised Letters.

List of advertised letters remaining in the Gainesville, Fla., postoffice June 27, 1903. Persons calling for same should call advertised, and give date. One cent is due on each letter advertised.

Kingwood, Mr. Oliver McBride, C. R. Moore, Wm. Richard, Mr. M. D. Stripling, Rev. Simon Sims, Mr. S. T. Willis, G. J. ARNOW, P. M.

Gainesville vs. Valdosta.

In almost an errorless game yesterday, Gainesville defeated Valdosta by a score of 1 to 4. Moses and Stovall were the battery for Gainesville, and notwithstanding the condition of the ground after it had been raining almost all day, Moses pitched what should have been a short-out game, and Stovall's catching was errorless.

Brunner and Dickinson, the battery for Valdosta, was high-class ball playing, and all around it was an interesting game. The team plays this afternoon and tomorrow. Three straight is what we need and must have, and then two or three from Jacksonville.

Gone to Jacksonville.

N. M. Boyd left a few days ago for Jacksonville, where he has accepted a good position with West, Edinfield & Co., proprietors of a large novelty works establishment. Mr. Boyd is not only a first-class cabinet maker and bookkeeper, but is a sober reliable and industrious young Christian gentleman.

He is well known and highly respected in church and fraternal order circles here, and will be missed by his numerous friends in those circles, but all will wish him a pleasant and profitable sojourn in Florida's metropolis.

A Serious Charge.

J. H. Crown of Rocky Point, but for the past few months residing in this city, was arrested here Friday by United States Marshal Chambers of Ocala, on a charge of using the United States mails for fraudulent purposes, in violation of Section 548 of the Postoffice Regulations. He was carried to Ocala.

BAKER-COLSON.

A Popular Young Couple Married at Plant City Saturday.

The many friends in this city of Miss Sabina Colson, eldest daughter of Hon. and Mrs. P. M. Colson, were surprised Sunday to learn that she had been married the day before at Plant City, where she was engaged as a music teacher.

Not even Miss Colson's parents knew that she was so soon to be married, and the news came as a surprise to them. The groom is W. E. Baker, a prominent young lawyer of Plant City, and the bride is the eldest daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Colson, this city, and is one of Gainesville's most charming and accomplished young ladies.

The happy young couple arrived in this city via the Seaboard Air Line yesterday, and are at the home of the bride's parents in East Gainesville, where they are receiving the congratulations of the numerous friends of the bride, but we understand they will make Plant City their home.

The STAR extends to Mr. and Mrs. Baker heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Attorney Fred Cumberly, of Bronson, was in the city yesterday.

20 Cents a day saved will grow to $640 in 80 months. See Movers.

Attorney W. S. Browne visited High Springs yesterday on legal business.

Fresh meats always on hand at P. V. Smith's meat market. Phone No. 36-3.

Program for Fourth of July picnic at Oak Vale, near Williston, unavoidably crowded out.

Mrs. L. A. Carver, of Jacksonville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mixson, this city.

A communication from "Buzzard's Glory" crowded out of this issue but will appear Friday.

F. M. Ramsey, one of Wacahoota's most popular citizens, was a business visitor to the city Saturday.

Don't Worry. The town is dry, but plant that 20 cents a day with Movers and watch it grow to $720 in 80 months.

Attorneys Chris Matheson and C. R. Layton went to High Springs on professional business this morning.

Rain has prevented the beginning, or broken up during the progress of several games of base ball here recently.

Mrs. I. E. Webster and daughter, Miss Maude, will spend the balance of the summer season at their old home in Vermont.

County Judge Mason yesterday issued marriage licenses for Thos. L. Ramsey of Boston, Ga., and Miss Fannie E. Martin of Hawthorn, Fla.

Giddings' Hair Grower does the work. For Sale by Dr. S. B. Giddings, Gainesville, and the Postoffice Drug Store, High Springs, Fla.

Miss Clem Hampton is spending some time at Ashville, N. C., from which city she expects to proceed to Pocomoke City, Md., to spend the summer.

Fletcher Cromwell, one of THE STAR office force, leaves today for Melrose, at which place he expects to spend about two weeks with relatives and friends.

If your hair is becoming thin try Giddings' Unparalleled Hair Grower. For sale by Dr. S. B. Giddings, Gainesville, and the Postoffice Drug Store, High Springs, Fla.

Miss Lenora Mixson has returned from an extended visit to relatives and friends at Thomasville, Ga. Her numerous friends are pleased to see her home again. Sheriff Fennell captured three gamblers near Bell Friday night. One was white and two colored. They were tried before Justice Barron and fined $5 each and costs.

Giddings' Unparalleled Hair Grower is all that its name implies. It cures dandruff stops falling hair and produces new hair. It is an excellent hair dresser. For sale at S. B. Giddings' Drug Store, Gainesville, and the Postoffice Drug Store, High Springs, Fla.

R. S. Bradley, Wacahoota; Graham Carter, Levyville; R. L. Barton, Rocky Point; Clarence Camp, Ocala, and F. A. Teague, Lady Lake, were among the visitors to the city Saturday.

Rev. M. A. Clonts, junior editor of the Southern Baptist, is hustling for his paper. He does the traveling for it, and is bringing in subscriptions, while they are coming in to Senior Editor Holley by mail.

D. C. Stricklin, formerly a prominent naval stores operator at Rochelle, but now in the same business at Duval, in Duval county, spent last night in the city. Mr. Stricklin is one of Florida's most successful naval stores men.

Umbrellas. A big assortment for ladies and gentlemen. We have ladies umbrellas from 50 cts. each to $10. Gents umbrellas from 60c. each to $7.00. Guaranteed goods. Broken or damaged umbrellas repaired and re-covered. L. C. Smith.

Assurance Society of the United States, "STRONGEST IN THE WORLD." Thames & Shipman, Managers, Jacksonville, Fla., John W. Tench, Local Agent, Gainesville, Fla.

Wesley Hall Bound Over.

Wesley Hall, in whose place of business Da-e Hall was caught selling whiskey on a recent Saturday night, for which he was fined $500 by the mayor, bound over to await the action of the grand jury by Judge Mason, and is now in the custody of the United States marshal, was tried before County Judge Mason yesterday on a similar charge and was bound over in the sum of $150 to await the action of the grand jury.

When Wesley Hall's shop was raided by Officers Pinkson and Cromwell they found therein quite a suspicious looking stock of liquors, a liquor drinking glass and a lot of empty bottles.

Fleet-Metcalf.

Married in Cambridge, Mass., June 16, Rev. W. N. Mason of Epworth M. E. church officiating. Fred. H. Fleet to Miss Beulah Metcalf, formerly of Hawthorne and Rochelle, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleet will reside on Hancock street, West Somerville, Mass. (Christian Advocate and Leesboro Commercial please copy.)

Prof. J. W. Wideman left yesterday for Asheville, N. C. He is Director for Florida and Assistant State Manager of the Southern Educational Association and the National Educational Association. The former meets in Asheville today and the latter will meet in Boston on July 6th. His official duties will prolong his visit about three weeks.

HAIR GROWER.

This is Very Wonderful if True—Try a Bottle and Be Convinced.

Brooklyn N. Y., April 21, 99

Dr. S. B. Giddings,

Dear Sir: Will you kindly inform me by return mail if you can send my fifty cent bottle of Hair Grower the Unparalleled (Trade Mark) and if so I will send you a postal note for the same. Please inform me the amount of postage if it can be mailed.

When in Florida the winter of 1897 and 98 I used five bottles of the twenty-five cent size and produced a nice growth of hair where it had been entirely bald for fifteen years, and now I would like to try it once more if I can get it.

Yours truly,

J. W. HAYNES, 59 Hicks St.
